MOVE FOR RECOUNT

Opened in Contest of McCall's Seat.

COURT DELAYS ACTION

that the Proceeding Is Not Well Founded.

Stattery alleging "on information and belief" that there were discrepancies between the tally sheets and the ballot Chicago bowlers, it was thought,

W. Butts, in behalf of the Board of Elections, opposing the application, pointed out that the law provides that the ballot boxes may be opened and the votes recounted under an order of the Court only upon allegations of facts, which would make a prima facie case, and that a recount would change the result of the election. No facts are alleged by Slattery or Wallace which, if true, would constitute such a case, except as to the Ninth Election District. Discrepancies between

The returns filed by the inspectors of election for the whole Aldermanic district gave McCall 3.864 votes and Slattery contested McCall's seat before the Committee on Privileges and Elections in the Beard of Aldermen, and to-day's move was to compet the Beard of Elections to produce these eleven ballot-boxes before that committee. election for the whole Aldermanic district gave McCail 3.86 votes and Slattary 3.810—a majority of 54 for McCail. Slattery contested McCail's scat before the Committee on Privileges and Elections in the Deard of Aldermen, and to-day's move was to compel the Board of Elections to produce these eleven ballot-boxes before that committee, there to be opened and the ballots recounted. In this way Mr. Hearst's indiffatigable little lawyer would get a chance to see how many clumsy voters made bad crosses in the circle over McClellan's ticket in these districts.

FIRE UNDER DEAD CHINESE.

Lee Wang Bang will be buried to-day. His body came near being cremated yesterday. He lay in state in the rooms of Bacegalupo, No. 2572 Mulberry street, the undertaker for Cainatown.

Fire started in some coffin linkags and other fabrics in the undertaker's cellar the fire alarm, and then put out the fire himself. The firemen moved the stock of coffine into the street to make sure. Lee Wang Bang was Grand Navier of lie Gee Gong Tong, the so-called Chinese Masons. He died of consumption ast Tuesday. Smith Favorite Over Voorheis.

Smith Favorite Over Voorheis.

There has been a decided change to-day in the betting on the big match contest between Jimmy Smith and John Voorheis at the Superba. Brooklyn, to-morrow might. Smith now being the favorite. Voorheis soor showing in his contest with Otto Heitzaka the Greater New York tournerment Sallarday night and other poor work during the week caused the change of sentiment in tayor of the Brooklyn boy.

There are some other features of the match that favor Smith in the opinion of good ladges in bowling matters. Voorheis cannot lo his best against any one of whom he expects a hard game. He refused to bowl Gus Steele in Chicago. Shiman and also Fred Sebhard, of Buffalo, all of whom, with the average against Koster with not what had been expected.

Smith is a good plugger, and just as scientic a bowler as Vcorheis on perfect alleys, as will be found at the superba. On rutty alleys Vcorheis would probably find the spot first, and no man in American can beat him on this point. Hooffels has also added to his reputation by rolling with good teams, while Smith has never had that opportunity. An interesting feature of the bowling tomorrow night will be the match between Fred Egelhoff and W. Miller.

Meier and Msche Won.

Meler and Mische, of the Pastime alleys, von the return and second series in the two-near team match with Dietz and Kane at Bottfried Franke's, No. 763 Tenth avenue, ast night, a large crowd of rosters being present. The match called for the box four put of seven games, but Moler and Mische von the contest in six games. Mische ruled high Score of 218.

Greater New York Schedule. Several very interesting contests are pro-sed in the Greater New York in svid-ournament this week, and whatever e season. The schedule of games for the week is as follows:

To-n'-ht-Bert Allen vs. George Haller, Grand Central, Beooklyn; Jimmy Watt vs. Jimmy Smith, Ablon, Twenty-third street; Lee Johns vs. Fred Egelhoff, Palace, Brooklyn.

Wednerday—Billy Linden vs. George Haller, at Linden's, Ninety-sixth street; Johnny Nelson vs. Fred Egelhoff, Universal, Brooklyn.

Nelson vs. Fred Egelmon, Universa, Scous-ivn.

Thursiny—Johnny Nelson vs. Fred Egel-hoff, Brooklyn Palace.
Saturday—John Veorhels vs. Jimmy Smith, Morningside, One Hundred and Fifteenth street.

Because of the Voorhels-Smith match Tuesday night and absence of several bowl-ers at the Nutlonal tournament several series have been postponed between March 17 and 30.

It doesn't do to be on the apparently strongest team in the national tournament. The Guythers, of Chicago, supposed to be of the best bowlers in that city, finished nowhere at Milwaukee, while the Gunther team No. 2 made up of cast-offs from the first team, won first brise.
